

Social and Emotional Learning Stations

1. Dealing with Feelings Station: Lakeshore:
<https://www.lakeshorelearning.com/products/books/board-books/dealing-with-feelings-board-book-collection/p/RA709>
This is a board book collection that families can read together.
2. Stack and Build Emotion Kids: Lakeshore:
<https://www.lakeshorelearning.com/products/social-studies/social-emotional-character-development/stack-build-emotion-kids/p/HH344>
Families can build while learning about body language to recognize emotions.
3. Hide and Seek Beehive:
<https://www.lakeshorelearning.com/products/infants-toddlers/sensory-development/hide-seek-beehive/p/FF250>
Develop object permanence by hiding and then locating bees. Kids will predict what kind of bee they have in their hand. Is it soft? Does it rattle?
4. Mood and Emotion Mirrors/Regular Mirrors:
<https://www.lakeshorelearning.com/products/social-studies/social-emotional-character-development/moods-emotions-mirrors/p/AA708>
Kids learn about emotions from mirrors and match emotions on mirrors using their own mirror.
<https://www.lakeshorelearning.com/products/social-studies/social-emotional-character-development/super-safe-mirrors/p/DD659> - mirrors
5. What's Inside? <https://www.lakeshorelearning.com/products/p/JJ909>
Kids will guess what object they are going to pull from the box. This develops the ability to predict. It also reinforces that is it okay to make guesses.

Items for the Bag:

1. What's Wrong Little Pookie? by Sandra Boynton
2. Regular Mirror